The recycling journey Polymers and aluminium Paper Extracted polymers and aluminium are processed Pulp is dried and as a composite material, or separately, and then pressed into used to make a variety of new products high-quality fibre to create new recycled paper products Water Re-pulping Empty cartons are mixed with water in a giant blender to separate Pulp paper fibres